

XIV International Conference on Corpus Linguistics

Corpus Linguistics in the Digital Era: Genres, registers and domains

Oviedo, Spain, 10-12 May, 2023

The Spanish Association for Corpus Linguistics (AELINCO) and the Organising Committee of this conference edition are pleased to invite you to the 14th International Conference on Corpus Linguistics (CILC2023), which will take place from 10 to 12 May 2023 at the Faculty of Humanities of the University of Oviedo.

The theme of the conference is Corpus Linguistics in the Digital Era: Genres, registers and domains. Most studies based on or derived from corpora, implicitly or explicitly, deal with the notion of genre, and other concepts such as those of register and domain. In Corpus Linguistics, the importance of these concepts has been repeatedly highlighted in studies by Douglas Biber and other linguists working in the field of Corpus Linguistics. This is the reason why the theme selected for the conference is Corpus Linguistics in the digital era, with especial reference to the analysis of genres, registers and domains. The conference will also cater for other themes such as the analysis of genres, registers and domains in Applied Linguistics and statistical analyses. These themes will be dealt with in different round tables taken place during the academic event.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

The following plenary speakers have confirmed their participation:

- Beatrix Busse (University of Cologne, Germany)
- Teresa Fanego (Universidad of Santiago de Compostela, Spain)
- Gaëtanelle Gilquin (Catholic University of Louvain, Belgium)
- Jukka Tyrkkö (Linnaeus University, Sweden)
- Roberto Valdeón (University of Oviedo, Spain)

SUBMISSION OF PROPOSALS

Prospect speakers are welcome to submit abstract proposals contributing to any one of the nine AELINCO thematic panels:

1. Corpus design, compilation and types
2. Discourse, literary analysis and corpora
3. Corpus-based grammatical studies
4. Corpus-based lexicology and lexicography
5. Corpora, contrastive studies and translation
6. Linguistic variation and change through corpora
7. Corpus-based computational linguistics
8. Corpora, language acquisition and teaching
9. Special uses of corpus linguistics

The Organising Committee of CILC2023 invites the submission of abstract proposals for oral presentations (20 minutes) or poster presentations (A1), in line with the central themes of the conference or related to one of the nine areas of interest (panels) of AELINCO.

Each participant may submit a maximum of two proposals in English or Spanish from 15 October 2022 to 31 December 2022, which is the deadline for submission. The specific guidelines for submission and the stylesheet may be found at <http://www.aelinco.es/en/cilc-instructions-style-sheet>.

All proposals should be submitted via a platform which will become available on 15 October, indicating the selected panel. Each proposal can only be included in a single panel. Notification of acceptance will be on 15 February 2023.

The Organising Committee remains at your disposal for any questions, suggestions or requests you may have. We may be reached at cilc.oviedo@gmail.com
